One of the last acts of the Conference Committee yesterday was to straighten out the invarraph resisting to leather.
The House paragraph placed a duty of 3 per cent on chamols skins and 18 per cent on pianoforte, pianoforte action and gives besthers. The Senate cowrote the paragraph, greatly eplarging its scope and making it include the skins of "seal, sheep, goat, lamb and kid, caif skins and leather dressed and finished, including patent, ispanned, varnished, or nameioff when not used in the manufacturer of boots and shoes. Shoe matufacturer insisted shart his amendment would make leathers dutiable that enter this the manufactures of boots and shoos. They stagled a propagandas and there was a deaflict over the matter.
Yeaterday the House paragraph was adopted as a compromise, with an amendment enlarging it to include "enamendinest enlarging it to include "enamendment enlarging in the continued patented leathers as are used in the manufacture of automobiles and in uphoistering generally, but will still keep on the free list such leathers as are used in the manufacture of pockethooks and such articles.

The listile for free art in the tarificial conference was won late yesterday, when the Senate receded from all of its simenfinishits to the House bill, which will mean the restoration of the House provision relating to art importations. The incomplete in the senate preceded from all of its simenfinishits to the House bill, which will mean the restoration of the House provision relating to art importations. The remarkable infinity made in the closing bours of the consideration of the tariff bill in the Senate by Senators Boot and Loderwood of the House Reantors and Means Committee, backed up by his colleagues from the House, refused to yield to the Senate. The section taken yesterday affects not only the art parastraphs in the free list, but also the parastraphs in the free list, but also the parastraphs in the rest list cased this duty to $\mathred{E}$ per cent paintings in oil or water collects, pastels, ben and fink drawings, and sculptures The Senate increased this duty to $\mathred{E}$ per cent and frestricting the stranger of the major water objects and restricting the stranger of the parastraphs in oil or water collects, pastels, ben and sink drawings, and sculptures The Senate increased this duty to $\mathred{E}$ per cent and frestricting the stranger of the products and the time should be presented in the first parastraph in the first parastraph and the lower duty of $\mathred{E}$ per cent and restricting the should be presented in the first parastraph and the lower duty of $\mathred{E}$ per cent and restricting the should be presented in the first parastraph and the lower duty of $\mathred{E}$ per cent and frestricting the should be presented in the House paragraph in the first parastraph and the lower duty of $\mathred{E}$ per cent and the collections imposed by the Senate and the collections in the mathred of the House paragraphs in the free list and the elimination of cortain restricted conditions imposed by the Senate, increased the restrictions by private collectors in the mathre of importation of

Ruud Storage Heater

A full supply of hot water guaranteed for houses with from one to five bathrooms.

The fact that there is always a full supply of hot water on hand for the household, and the further fact that you get this water at full pressure from as many spigots as you wish, has made the No. 50 very desirable and highly recommended by its users.

The thermostat is placed inside the boiler, and the gas is controlled by the actual temperature of the water on hand. Is made to operate when the temperature is reduced 20%. The regulator, set to shut off the gas when the water is 170 degrees, automatically relights when the temperature is reduced to about 136 degrees. The gas in this heater will not burn when the water is hot. It only lights up when sufficient water has been drawn off to reduce the temperature 20%, and then it only takes a few minutes for the gas to bring the water back to steaming, The gas is lighted only once a year. There are plug outlets so as to heat the water in the same poiler from the furnace or coal range. Most customers utilize the water-back in winter and use a gas in summer. The asbestos we place will retain the heat in the boiler. In placing this asbestos covering we first form a dead air space so as to give the most scientific insulation possible. RUUD MANUFACTURING CO.
